SINKS OFF IRISH COAST

British Lose Auxiliary Cruiser.

ENTIRE CREW PERISHES

Admiralty Announces Ship Missing Some Days.

London, Jan. 26.—It was officially announced at the admiralty that the British armored merchant vessel Viktor had been lost off Ireland with all hands.

The vessel, it was stated, either struck a mine or foundered. The admiralty statement says:

"She has been missing for some days and must now be accepted as lost, with all her officers and men. The cause of her loss is uncertain, but, as some bodies and wreckage have been washed ashore on the north coast of Ireland, it is presumed that during the recent bad weather she either foundered or, being carried out of her course, struck a mine in seas where the Germans are known to have laid them."

The Viktor was formerly the Viking and was commandeered by the admiralty Dec. 12.

She was in charge of Commander Ernest O. Ballantyne.

The number of her crew cannot be ascertained.

SUFFRAGETTES IN PROTEST

Deputation Objects to Restrictions on Soldiers' Wives.

London, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Charlotte Despard, sister of Field Marshal Sir John French and a suffragette who was in several fierce battles with the police in ante-bellum days, with the permission of Secretary of War Kitchener, introduced at the British war office a deputation of suffragettes, who called to protest against the orders whereby soldiers' wives in receipt of separate allowances are required to conform with a certain standard of propriety and sobriety under penalty of the loss of their allowances. An assistant secretary received the deputation.

Sylvania Pankhurst, who was the principal speaker for the party, protested against any official discrimination with respect to the standards of morality between men and women. The assistant secretary promised to report their views to the proper authority.

CAPTURE RUSSIAN TRENCH

Petrograd Admits Slight German Gain Sunday.

Petrograd, Jan. 26.—The following official communication was issued from general headquarters:

"Sunday in the region between the Vistula and the Mlava railway there was no important modification to report, but there have been engagements between small members of units and rifle firing. On the left flank of the Vistula a relative lull prevails."

"North of the Borjow farm the Germans were successful Saturday in capturing from us one of our advanced trenches of secondary importance."

"Sunday our artillery checked seriously the movement of their troops along the front. At one point we captured by means of our heavy artillery fire a trench of the enemy, with machine guns."

AUSTRIAN CRUISER REPORTED SUNK

London, Jan. 26.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Venice says Trieste reports that an Austrian cruiser has struck a mine near the Brioni islands and sank.

The Brioni islands are at the mouth of the harbor of Pola, Austria's big naval base and arsenal on the Adriatic.

Regulates Use of Wireless.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The German imperial marine authorities have forbidden the use of wireless apparatus in German waters by merchant ships, except in case of distress.

Supreme Court to Take Recess.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The supreme court announced that after announcing opinions Feb. 1 it would recess until Feb. 23.

ADMIRAL KNIGHT.

Declares Navy Has Only One Excuse for Existing.

Copyright by Walden P. Jewett.

ALWAYS READY TO STRIKE

Admiral Knight Advocates Keeping Navy in Trim.

New York, Jan. 26.—Creation of a council of national defense, for which a bill is already before congress, and establishment of a division of strategy and operations in the navy department were advocated by Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, president of the naval war college at Newport, R. I., in an address before the Efficiency club here.

"There can be no question that the existing organization of the navy department is inadequate and would break down under the strain of war," the rear admiral said. "A navy has one excuse for existing and only one—that it should always be ready to strike on the minute with every element of power concentrated behind its blow for the defense of the country."

BELIEVE BRITISH CRUISER WAS SUNK

Germans Are Satisfied With Naval Battle.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—Meager unofficial details available here concerning the naval engagement in the North sea Sunday indicate that torpedoes may have been responsible for the sinking of the German armored cruiser Blucher and a British cruiser. The detailed official report of the fight has not yet been issued.

It is conjectured here that the torpedoes which are believed to have sent the warships to the bottom were delivered by torpedo boat destroyers between the lines of cruisers, it being argued that the range of from eight and one-half to twelve and one-half miles over which the fight took place would have been too great for torpedoes shot from the cruisers.

One German cruiser was hit by a shell, but was able to remain in the fighting line. Submarines apparently did not participate in the battle. It is understood the weather during the engagement was clear.

Rear Admiral Hipper commanded the German squadron and Captain Erdmann the Blucher.

The news of the sea fight was received in Germany with much satisfaction despite the loss of the Blucher. The Berlin newspapers assume, pending receipt of the English report, that the British battle cruiser reported sunk in the engagement was considerably larger than the Blucher.

PREFERS JAIL TO THE WAR

"Con" Man Chooses Prison Term Over the Field of Honor.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 26.—Daniel Galucchi, a convicted confidence man, accepted a long prison term in preference to deportation to Austria to serve in the Austrian army.

"I will give you the alternative of serving your country in the army, or I will send you to the penitentiary," the judge proposed.

"Send me to jail," replied Galucchi after a moment's consideration.

"Ten years," said the judge.

PENSION BILL IS REPORTED

Appropriation Totalling $165,000,000 Recommended to House.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The annual pension appropriation bill, aggregating $165,000,000 for the next fiscal year, was reported favorably to the house from the appropriations committee. The total is $1,000,000 below the estimates.

The report estimated that the Sherwood dollar a day law had cost the government so far $63,000,000.

AUSTRIAN FRONT BECOMES ACTIVE

Strong Effort to Check Invasion of Hungary.

CALM IN WESTERN THEATER

London Military Observers Appear to Attach Some Importance to the Russian Movement Near the East and West Prussian Frontiers—Roumania May Join the Allies Any Moment.

London, Jan. 26.—The sudden stiffening of the Austrian front at the eleventh hour to check the Russian invasion of Hungary as a natural sequence of the occupation of Bukovina seems for the present to be the event of chief military importance. The Russians seem to recognize this and all recent dispatches from Petrograd have emphasized the Austro-German offensive into the southeastern theater.

Second in importance, perhaps, are the Russian movements near the east and west Prussian frontiers—movements of which the German statement received by wireless takes cognizance, although insisting that no new advance into German territory is now feared.

In the western theater there has been so little change that the British newspapers print the official communications with scant comment, preferring to feature Sunday's naval action. The facts concerning this engagement are not given in detail and the admiralty had nothing to add to the original announcement.

With great battles soon to be fought out at her front door Roumania has not yet decided to join in the conflict, but it is patent that the situation in the Balkans is simmering and it is believed action will come suddenly.

The Swedish press is showing renewed irritation against the British contraband policy and some of the Stockholm papers suggest reprisals by forbidding the transportation of goods destined for Great Britain over Swedish railways. One paper says the country should strengthen her defenses by means of which she would be able to command respect for her neutrality.

FAVORS NICARAGUAN PACT

Bryan Suggests Panama Canal May Have to Be Supplemented.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Suggesting that it was not unlikely that the United States some day would build an other interoceanic waterway to supplement the Panama canal Secretary Bryan explained that he regarded it as a wise precaution for the American government to negotiate treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica, giving this country an option on a canal route across that section of Central America.

He also spoke of the importance of a naval base in the Bay of Fonseca and announced that the state department was prepared to treat for this with Honduras, Salvador and Nicaragua.

SOUTH FEELS COTTON BOOST

General Improvement in Business During Last Month.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 26.—Notable improvement in business conditions in the South within the last few weeks is indicated in reports from merchants, cotton factors and bankers from all over that section. Last month in particular, business men assert, has developed the recuperative power of the cotton states. An advance of nearly 2 cents a pound in cotton has been achieved, cotton now selling at 8 cents.

Advance in the price of cotton seed, according to estimates of experts, has resulted in a net increase of approximately $120,000,000 in the cash value of cotton.

IGNORES AMERICAN REQUEST

Russia May Not Allow Visitors to Prisoners of War.

Washington, Jan. 26.—It became known that a second request by American Ambassador Marjory, at Petrograd, that two Americans be permitted to carry supplies to prisoners in detention camps in Siberia, had so far failed to bring a response from the Russian government.

This information, conveyed to the state department, has aroused anxiety at the German and Austro-Hungarian embassies here.

Officials of the Austro-Hungarian embassy said, while they did not doubt that Russia had issued proper rules for the treatment of prisoners, they believed the rules were not being enforced in view of reports of extreme destitution among the foreigners detained in Siberian camps.

GERMAN ARMIES TAKE OFFENSIVE

Special to The Dispatch:—

London, Jan. 26.—The German armies of the east have suddenly taken the offensive, delivering violent attacks simultaneously at several points. The German war office reports today claims an important victory over the British troops along La-bassee Canal, in France, just south of the Belgian border.

ADVANCE RECORDED BY AUSTRO-GERMANS

Special to Dispatch:—

Berlin, Jan. 26.—A dispatch received today from Crasow, Galicia, says the Austro-German forces have occupied Keilce, Russian Poland.

TRAMP SCHOONER SINKS STEAMER

Special to Dispatch:—

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 26.—One man was lost and 39 rescued when an unidentified schooner collided with and sank the American-Hawaiian steamer "Washington," 50 miles off Cape Henry. Those saved were taken on board the old Dominion liner "Hamilton."

PRIVATE CAPITAL IS SAFE

Redfield Says Ship Purchase Bill Won't Close Door.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 26.—Diversification of crops, upbuilding of manufactures and passage of the government ship purchase bill were three things urged as necessary for national prosperity and development in a speech made here by William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, before the Dallas Merchants and Manufacturers' association.

Referring to the ship purchase bill he declared passage of this bill would not close the door to private capital in the shipping world.

"DRY" SENTIMENT IS GROWING FAST

Prohibition Defeated Only by Parliamentary Procedure.

DEBATE AN INTERESTING ONE

Majority Can Always Be Expected in Either House When Measure Is Put to a Direct Vote—Senator Lane Tells Georgia and South Carolina How to Enforce Their Dry Laws.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—No one would have believed a few years ago that the United States senate would spend days in discussing the prohibition question. But it did, and, further, the "drys" seemed to have a majority, which could only be beaten by parliamentary procedure.

However, it is questionable whether a majority of the senate actually favors prohibition for the District of Columbia or whether there is such a majority in favor of national prohibition. Nevertheless it is a fact that the anti-liquor sentiment is so strong throughout the different states that a majority can be counted on to vote the dry ticket whenever there is a direct vote in either house.

An interesting debate. Probably in time to come the debating societies on the liquor question will find in the records of the senate a most instructive and interesting discussion, with many facts which they can use. The strong arguments in favor of prohibition will be used in the future whenever campaigns are made against the liquor traffic. Even if the discussion delayed the business of congress the time was not altogether lost.

The Army Engineer.

During the discussion of the river and harbor bill in the house men who did not like some of its provisions took an opportunity to criticize the army engineers, under whose direction all river and harbor work is performed. These reflections brought Congressman Taylor of Alabama to his feet with a defense of the army engineer. He said that the isthmian canal was first dreamed of 400 years ago, and it was a Spanish engineer who suggested the feasibility of uniting the oceans. He then went on to speak of the 400 years of dreams, including the efforts that France had made, all of which had failed.

"The canal was never built," said Taylor, "until a United States army engineer took charge of it, and now it is a finished thing." Not only did he pay a tribute to Colonel Goethals, but also mentioned Colonel Siebert, Colonel Galliard and Colonel Hodges.

Marshall a Reader.

The question of rules and procedure, always the most vitally interesting subject the senate can have, was before the senate for several days, and one morning Vice President Marshall stated that he wanted to read into the record a quotation from a parliamentarian on the subject.

"Would the chair object to the secretary reading it?" asked Senator Smoot of Utah.

"I supplement that request," remarked Senator Simmons of North Carolina. "Of course the chair can read it if he likes."

"The chair prides himself on his reading qualities," said the vice president, and he then proceeded to read the article.

Strong Peace Movement.

Washington seems to have become the headquarters for a strong peace movement, and the organization has reached out in every direction to secure support for its plan. One difficulty which this peace movement seems to have encountered is in terminal facilities at the point where it could do the most good. Peace propagandists would have some difficulty in reaching the men who have the power to bring about peace in distracted Europe.

During the discussion of the liquor question in the senate Senator Lane of Oregon added an interesting, instructive and an amusing contribution. Senator Martine of New Jersey a short time before had been telling how prohibition was a failure in South Carolina and Georgia and that men in search of drinks were able to get them. Commenting on this, Lane said:

"It seems that these states are unable to keep enterprising gentlemen dropping in from other states, men with a keen nose for the article, from finding it. For the benefit of those states I would suggest that they adopt the method of the Eskimos to protect their food supplies from the hungry malemute dogs. They cache their supplies on a platform about twenty feet from the ground. By doing this Georgia and South Carolina could prevent enterprising and thirsty visitors from other states from getting their liquor without the use of a ladder."

SENATOR ROOT.

ROOT ATTACKS SHIP BILL

Draws Sharp Replies From Three Democratic Senators.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Grave fear that the pending government ship purchase bill, if carried into effect, would involve the United States in serious international controversies was expressed in the senate by Senator Root of New York.

Addressing himself largely to the legal aspects of the measure and what the administration plans to do under it the senator charged the Democrats with attempting to rush the bill through by "brute force and weight of votes," and warned his colleagues against the danger of reducing the senate to a mere "registering instead of a legislative body."

Senator Root's speech aroused the majority members, who for several days had remained silent while Republican speakers attacked the bill, and drew sharp replies from Senators Williams, Stone and Simmons.

GOVERNMENT SEIZES WHEAT IN GERMANY

Action Is Taken to Conserve Bread Supply.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—All stocks of wheat have been seized by the German government, according to the official statement, in order to safeguard the bread supply until the next harvest.

This measure, it is said, was made necessary by the fact that the people have failed to economize.

The stocks will be distributed according to the population of the various communities.

MANN ATTACKS PRESIDENT

Charges Executive With Building Machine for Second Term.

Washington, Jan. 26.—J. R. Mann, minority leader in the house, frequently mentioned as a Republican possibility for the presidential nomination, on the floor of the house declared President Wilson is building up a personal political machine, with a second term as his objective.

The attack on the president was made during general debate on the agricultural bill. Mann prefaced his remarks by the statement that "it was intended in good humor, I say good humor, because it is almost an offense in the house nowadays to refer to the last national Democratic platform."

He then quoted from the Democratic platform, which declared for a single term.

KNOCKS OUT LABOR LAWS

Federal Supreme Court Decision Affects Many States.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Under a decision handed down by the United States supreme court a labor law of Minnesota is held to be unconstitutional. The labor statutes of eleven states, among them Wisconsin and Minnesota, are held to be without effect.

The opinion holds that statutes in many states which make it a misdemeanor for an employer to require an employee to sign an agreement not to join a labor union during the term of his employment are unconstitutional because repugnant to the Constitution, as depriving a person of his liberty without due process of law.

The case was appealed from the Kansas supreme court, which held the statute to be valid.

AMERICAN NAVAL VESSELS SLOW

Officers Show Keen Interest in Sunday's Battle.

NORTH CAROLINA IS FASTEST

Swiftest Armored Cruiser in United States Naval Squadron Is Slower Than the German Cruiser Blucher, the Slowest Vessel in the Action With the British Fleet.

Washington, Jan. 26.—American naval officers see much to alarm them in the result of the engagement Sunday between the British squadron under Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty and the German force. They point out that the Blucher, the German warship which was sunk, was the slowest of all the vessels engaged.

Not a battleship or armored cruiser of the United States navy is the superior in speed to any of the British or German vessels of the same class. Speed is more nearly equal in the case of battleships, but in armored cruisers and what are known as battle cruisers the United States navy is from three to four knots slower.

The British and German squadrons were made up of the fastest warships in either service. The British squadron's slowest warship was the Princess Royal, of 24.7 knots, while the Blucher was 23 knots speed. The British battle cruiser New Zealand has a speed of 24.7 knots, while the fastest of the German squadron, the Seydlitz, could make 29 knots.

SINKS OFF IRISH COAST

British Lose Auxiliary Cruiser.

ENTIRE CREW PERISHES

Admiralty Announces Ship Missing Some Days.

London, Jan. 26.—It was officially announced at the admiralty that the British armored merchant vessel Viknor had been lost off Ireland with all hands.

The vessel, it was stated, either struck a mine or foundered. The admiralty statement says:

"She has been missing for some days and must now be accepted as lost, with all her officers and men. The cause of her loss is uncertain, but, as some bodies and wreckage have been washed ashore on the north coast of Ireland, it is presumed that during the recent bad weather she either foundered or, being carried out of her course, struck a mine in seas where the Germans are known to have laid them."

The Viknor was formerly the Viking and was commandeered by the admiralty Dec. 12.

She was in charge of Commander Ernest O. Ballantyne.

The number of her crew cannot be ascertained.

SUFFRAGETTES IN PROTEST

Deputation Objects to Restrictions on Soldiers' Wives.

London, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Charlotte Despard, sister of Field Marshal Sir John French and a suffragette who was in several fierce battles with the police in ante-bellum days, with the permission of Secretary of War Kitchener, introduced at the British war office a deputation of suffragettes, who called to protest against the orders whereby soldiers' wives in receipt of separate allowances are required to conform with a certain standard of propriety and sobriety under penalty of the loss of their allowances. An assistant secretary received the deputation.

Sylvia Pankhurst, who was the principal speaker for the party, protested against any official discrimination with respect to the standards of morality between men and women. The assistant secretary promised to report their views to the proper authority.

CAPTURE RUSSIAN TRENCH

Petrograd Admits Slight German Gain Sunday.

Petrograd, Jan. 26.—The following official communication was issued from general headquarters:

"Sunday in the region between the Vistula and the Mlawa railway there was no important modification to report, but there have been engagements between small members of units and rifle firing. On the left flank of the Vistula a relative lull prevails."

"North of the Borjow farm the Germans were successful Saturday in capturing from us one of our advanced trenches of secondary importance."

"Sunday our artillery checked seriously the movement of their troops along the front. At one point we captured by means of our heavy artillery fire a trench of the enemy, with machine guns."

PREFERS JAIL TO THE WAR

"Con" Man Chooses Prison Term Over the Field of Honor.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 26.—Daniel Galucchi, a convicted confidence man, accepted a long prison term in preference to deportation to Austria to serve in the Austrian army.

"I will give you the alternative of serving your country in the army, or I will send you to the penitentiary," the judge proposed.

"Send me to jail," replied Galucchi after a moment's consideration.

"Ten years," said the judge.

PENSION BILL IS REPORTED

Appropriation Totalling $165,000,000 Recommended to House.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The annual pension appropriation bill, aggregating $165,000,000 for the next fiscal year, was reported favorably to the house from the appropriations committee. The total is $1,000,000 below the estimates.

The report estimated that the Sherwood dollar a day law had cost the government so far $63,000,000.

ALWAYS READY TO STRIKE

Admiral Knight Advocates Keeping Navy in Trim.

New York, Jan. 26.—Creation of a council of national defense, for which a bill is already before congress, and establishment of a division of strategy and operations in the navy department were advocated by Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, president of the naval war college at Newport, R. I., in an address before the Efficiency club here.

"There can be no question that the existing organization of the navy department is inadequate and would break down under the strain of war," the rear admiral said. "A navy has one excuse for existing and only one—that it should always be ready to strike on the minute with every element of power concentrated behind its blow for the defense of the country."

BELIEVE BRITISH CRUISER WAS SUNK

Germans Are Satisfied With Naval Battle.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—Meager unofficial details available here concerning the naval engagement in the North Sea Sunday indicate that torpedoes may have been responsible for the sinking of the German armored cruiser Blücher and a British cruiser. The detailed official report of the fight has not yet been issued.

It is conjectured here that the torpedoes which are believed to have sent the warships to the bottom were delivered by torpedo boat destroyers between the lines of cruisers, it being argued that the range of from eight and one-half to twelve and one-half miles over which the light took place would have been too great for torpedoes shot from the cruisers.

One German cruiser was hit by a shell, but was able to remain in the fighting line. Submarines apparently did not participate in the battle. It is understood the weather during the engagement was clear.

Rear Admiral Hipper commanded the German squadron and Captain Erdmann the Blücher.

The news of the sea fight was received in Germany with much satisfaction despite the loss of the Blücher. The Berlin newspapers assume, pending receipt of the English report, that the British battle cruiser reported sunk in the engagement was considerably larger than the Blücher.

"Con" Man Chooses Prison Term Over the Field of Honor.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 26.—Daniel Galucchi, a convicted confidence man, accepted a long prison term in preference to deportation to Austria to serve in the Austrian army.

"I will give you the alternative of serving your country in the army, or I will send you to the penitentiary," the judge proposed.

"Send me to jail," replied Galucchi after a moment's consideration.

"Ten years," said the judge.

AUSTRIAN FRONT BECOMES ACTIVE

Strong Effort to Check Invasion of Hungary.

CALM IN WESTERN THEATER

London Military Observers Appear to Attach Some Importance to the Russian Movement Near the East and West Prussian Frontiers—Roumania May Join the Allies Any Moment.

London, Jan. 26.—The sudden stiffening of the Austrian front at the eleventh hour to check the Russian invasion of Hungary as a natural sequence of the occupation of Bukovina seems for the present to be the event of chief military importance. The Russians seem to recognize this and all recent dispatches from Petrograd have emphasized the Austro-German offensive into the southeastern theater.

Second in importance, perhaps, are the Russian movements near the east and west Prussian frontiers—movements of which the German statement received by wireless takes cognizance, although insisting that no new advance into German territory is now feared.

In the western theater there has been so little change that the British newspapers print the official communications with scant comment, preferring to feature Sunday's naval action. The facts concerning this engagement are not given in detail and the admiralty had nothing to add to the original announcement.

With great battles soon to be fought out at her front door Roumania has not yet decided to join in the conflict, but it is patent that the situation in the Balkans is simmering and it is believed action will come suddenly.

The Swedish press is showing renewed irritation against the British contraband policy and some of the Stockholm papers suggest reprisals by forbidding the transportation of goods destined for Great Britain over Swedish railways. One paper says the country should strengthen her defenses by means of which she would be able to command respect for her neutrality.

Bryan Suggests Panama Canal May Have to Be Supplemented.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Suggesting that it was not unlikely that the United States some day would build another interoceanic waterway to supplement the Panama canal Secretary Bryan explained that he regarded it as a wise precaution for the American government to negotiate treaties with Nicaragua and Costa Rica, giving this country an option on a canal route across that section of Central America.

He also spoke of the importance of a naval base in the Bay of Fonseca and announced that the state department was prepared to treat for this with Honduras, Salvador and Nicaragua.

SOUTH FEELS COTTON BOOST

General Improvement in Business During Last Month.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 26.—Notable improvement in business conditions in the South within the last few weeks is indicated in reports from merchants, cotton factors and bankers from all over that section. Last month in particular, business men assert, has developed the recuperative power of the cotton states. An advance of nearly 2 cents a pound in cotton has been achieved, cotton now selling at 8 cents. Advance in the price of cotton seed, according to estimates of experts, has resulted in a net increase of approximately $129,000,000 in the cash value of cotton.

IGNORES AMERICAN REQUEST

Russia May Not Allow Visitors to Prisoners of War.

Washington, Jan. 26.—It became known that a second request by American Ambassador Marrye, at Petrograd, that two Americans be permitted to carry supplies to prisoners in detention camps in Siberia, had so far failed to bring a response from the Russian government.

This information, conveyed to the state department, has aroused anxiety at the German and Austro-Hungarian embassies here.

Officials of the Austro-Hungarian embassy said, while they did not doubt that Russia had issued proper rules for the treatment of prisoners, they believed the rules were not being enforced in view of reports of extreme destitution among the foreigners detained in Siberian camps.

Referring to the ship purchase bill he declared passage of this bill would not close the door to private capital in the shipping world.

"DRY" SENTIMENT IS GROWING FAST

Prohibition Defeated Only by Parliamentary Procedure.

DEBATE AN INTERESTING ONE

Majority Can Always Be Expected in Either House When Measure Is Put to a Direct Vote—Senator Lane Tells Georgia and South Carolina How to Enforce Their Dry Laws.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 26.—[Special.]—No one would have believed a few years ago that the United States senate would spend days in discussing the prohibition question. But it did, and, further, the "drys" seemed to have a majority, which could only be beaten by parliamentary procedure.

However, it is questionable whether a majority of the senate actually favors prohibition for the District of Columbia or whether there is such a majority in favor of national prohibition. Nevertheless it is a fact that the anti-liquor sentiment is so strong throughout the different states that a majority can be counted on to vote the dry ticket whenever there is a direct vote in either house.

An Interesting Debate.

Probably in time to come the debating societies on the liquor question will find in the records of the senate a most instructive and interesting discussion, with many facts which they can use. The strong arguments in favor of prohibition will be used in the future whenever campaigns are made against the liquor traffic. Even if the discussion delayed the business of congress the time was not altogether lost.

The Army Engineer.

During the discussion of the river and harbor bill in the house men who did not like some of its provisions took an opportunity to criticize the army engineers, under whose direction all river and harbor work is performed. These reflections brought Congressman Taylor of Alabama to his feet with a defense of the army engineer. He said that the isthmian canal was first dreamed of 400 years ago, and it was a Spanish engineer who suggested the feasibility of uniting the oceans. He then went on to speak of the 400 years of dreams, including the efforts that France had made, all of which had failed.

"The canal was never built," said Taylor, "until a United States army engineer took charge of it, and now it is a finished thing." Not only did he pay a tribute to Colonel Goethals, but also mentioned Colonel Siebert, Colonel Gallard and Colonel Hodges.

Marshall a Reader.

The question of rules and procedure, always the most vitally interesting subject the senate can have, was before the senate for several days, and one morning Vice President Marshall stated that he wanted to read into the record a quotation from a parliamentary work on the subject.

"Would the chair object to the secretary reading it?" asked Senator Smoot of Utah.

"I supplement that request," remarked Senator Simmons of North Carolina. "Of course the chair can read it if he likes."

The chair prides himself on his reading qualities," said the vice president, and he then proceeded to read the article.

Strong Peace Movement.

Washington seems to have become the headquarters for a strong peace movement, and the organization has reached out in every direction to secure support for its plan. One difficulty which this peace movement seems to have encountered is in terminal facilities at the point where it could do the most good. Peace propagandists would have some difficulty in reaching the men who have the power to bring about peace in distracted Europe.

During the discussion of the liquor question in the senate Senator Lane of Oregon added an interesting, instructive and an amusing contribution. Senator Martine of New Jersey a short time before had been telling how prohibition was a failure in South Carolina and Georgia and that men in search of drinks were able to get them. Commenting on this, Lane said:

"It seems that these states are unable to keep enterprising gentlemen dropping in from other states, men with a keen nose for the article, from finding it. For the benefit of those states I would suggest that they adopt the method of the Eskimos to protect their food supplies from the hungry malemute dogs. They cache their supplies on a platform about twenty feet from the ground. By doing this Georgia and South Carolina could prevent enterprising and thirsty visitors from other states from getting their liquor without the use of a ladder."

ROOT ATTACKS SHIP BILL

Draws Sharp Replies From Three Democratic Senators.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Grave fear that the pending government ship purchase bill, if carried into effect, would involve the United States in serious international controversies was expressed in the senate by Senator Root of New York.

Addressing himself largely to the legal aspects of the measure and what the administration plans to do under it the senator charged the Democrats with attempting to rush the bill through by "brute force and weight of votes," and warned his colleagues against the danger of reducing the senate to a mere "registering instead of a legislative body."

Senator Root's speech aroused the majority members, who for several days had remained silent while Republican speakers attacked the bill, and drew sharp replies from Senators Williams, Stone and Simmons.

GOVERNMENT SEIZES WHEAT IN GERMANY

Action Is Taken to Conserve Bread Supply.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—All stocks of wheat have been seized by the German government, according to the official statement, in order to safeguard the bread supply until the next harvest.

This measure, it is said, was made necessary by the fact that the people have failed to economize.

The stocks will be distributed according to the population of the various communities.

MANN ATTACKS PRESIDENT

Charges Executive With Building Machine for Second Term.

Washington, Jan. 26.—J. R. Mann, minority leader in the house, frequently mentioned as a Republican possibility for the presidential nomination, on the floor of the house declared President Wilson is building up a personal political machine, with a second term as his objective.

The attack on the president was made during general debate on the agricultural bill. Mann prefaced his remarks by the statement that "it was intended in good humor, I say good humor, because it is almost an offense in the house nowadays to refer to the last national Democratic platform."

He then quoted from the Democratic platform, which declared for a single term.

KNOCKS OUT LABOR LAWS

Federal Supreme Court Decision Affects Many States.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Under a decision handed down by the United States supreme court a labor law of Minnesota is held to be unconstitutional. The labor statutes of eleven states, among them Wisconsin and Minnesota, are held to be without effect.

The opinion holds that statutes in many states which make it a misdemeanor for an employer to require an employee to sign an agreement not to join a labor union during the term of his employment are unconstitutional because repugnant to the Constitution, as depriving a person of his liberty without due process of law.

The case was appealed from the Kansas supreme court, which held the statute to be valid.

AMERICAN NAVAL VESSELS SLOW

Officers Show Keen Interest in Sunday's Battle.

NORTH CAROLINA IS FASTEST

Swiftest Armored Cruiser in United States Naval Squadron Is Slower Than the German Cruiser Blücher, the Slowest Vessel in the Action With the British Fleet.

Washington, Jan. 26.—American naval officers see much to alarm them in the result of the engagement Sunday between the British squadron under Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty and the German force. They point out that the Blücher, the German warship which was sunk, was the slowest of all the vessels engaged.

Not a battleship or armored cruiser of the United States navy is the superior in speed to any of the British or German vessels of the same class. Speed is more nearly equal in the case of battleships, but in armored cruisers and what are known as battle cruisers the United States navy is from three to four knots slower.

The British and German squadrons were made up of the fastest warships in either service. The British squadron's slowest warship was the Princess Royal, of 24.70 knots, while the Blücher was 23 knots speed. The British battle cruiser New Zealand has a speed of 24.70 knots, while the fastest of the German squadron, the Seeyditz, could make 29 knots.

Lack of Speed Proves Fatal.

The fastest armored cruiser in the United States navy which can be compared to the British and German squadrons is the North Carolina, with a displacement of 14,500 tons and a speed of only 22.4 knots an hour, less even than that of the Blücher, which was lost because of her lack of speed.

Both Germany and Great Britain have battleships possessing greater speed than the armored cruisers of the United States navy.

When the fact that the United States navy had no vessels of the speed of those of Germany and Great Britain was called to the attention of Chairman Padgett of the naval committee of the house he said:

"That is not the fault of congress. The details of construction, speed, etc., is left to the navy. They design and build the ships. If our navy is deficient in speed it is the fault of the naval officers entrusted with the building of the battleships. It must be remembered that the United States has built no armored cruisers in the last ten years. In these days it is to be expected that warships will become obsolete within a few years."

Representative Augustus P. Gardner, Massachusetts, said:

"This is but another instance of our unpreparedness. This war has demonstrated beyond all else that in a sea fight the victory belongs to the speedy. The upbuilding of our navy is imperative."

PROHIBITION FOR ICELAND

Parliament Forbids Sale of Alcoholic Liquors.

Copenhagen, Jan. 26.—The parliament of Iceland, thirty-four of whose members are elected by popular suffrage, has passed a measure forbidding the sale of alcoholic liquors.

All the remaining stock in the Danish dependency has been exported.

WOULD MAKE ARKANSAS DRY

Governor Hayes Urges Senate Pass Statewide Prohibition Law.

Little Rock, Jan. 26.—In a message to the senate Governor Hayes urged passage of a statewide prohibition bill which would not be submitted to the voters of the state for ratification.

The message followed the action of the senate in killing, by indefinite postponement, a measure providing for the submission to the people of the statewide prohibition question.

In the wedding notice published in the Little Falls Transcript mention was made that Wm. Vernon was to remove to Minneapolis. This is not the case. Mr. Vernon continues in Brainerd, for as he says, Brainerd is a good town for business.

The Saxon has a Continental six cylinder motor of long stroke, a special design for the Saxon car. Price

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. R.
M. Everest, of Zippie, at St. Anthony's hospital, Saturday evening.
Mrs. Everest was formerly Miss Elsie
Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
George Walker, of this city. Things moved lively in the freight department of the Minnesota & International railroad this morning and Agent Walker, who did most of the rustling himself, smiled when called grandpa.—Benidji Pioneer.

Coupon tickets were issued last night at the Empress theatre, and the management announced that next Monday would be pay day at the Empress. To every one attending next Monday's performance, a pay envelope will be given and that any person holding three coupon tickets will be admitted free on Sunday and given an envelope.

The bill for today is a two-part drama, "In Tune," a Keystone comedy, "Other Peoples Business," a side-splitter, and "The Amateur Detective," a comedy drama.

"The Great Diamond Robbery," a photo drama in six parts, will be the program tomorrow. This feature is a splendid play, full of thrills and adventure. The cast is composed of Broadway stars. The picture is a big feature.

At the Grand
In the fifth installment, at the Grand tonight, of John Fleming Wilson's dramatic photoplay of love and adventure, "The Master Key", the action of the drama is transferred to San Francisco. The gay hotel life of the far western metropolis figures in the latest episode of this serial, while a visit to Chinatown gives one a glimpse into the Oriental colony which has grown up in the coast city since the memorable fire of 1906.

"Called Back" for Wednesday and Thursday. Hugh Conway's famous novel in which the futility of trying to avoid the penalty of sin is clearly shown and how the sixth sense proved to be fate's avenger. A wonderful realistic film in four reels featuring Herbert Rawlinson and Anna Little. This picture was taken in Europe and nothing was spared in perfecting it. Everybody has read this book which will make these reels all the more interesting.

At the Columbia
Seldom have the Brainerd public been given an opportunity of seeing a more finished comedy-drama than the one presented tonight known as "Without Hope". Miss Elaine Sterne's in a recent contest held by the New York Telegraph received the first prize among nearly 50,000 contestants. "Without Hope" is her story and has been put on the screen by Fred Mace, one of the most popular comedians in America. This was the intention of the paper in the first place and the "Telegraph" personally is responsible for the production.
It was produced by the famous Flim-ingo Film Co., whose productions, by the way, have never shown in this city. A one reel cartoon comedy will also be shown.

Of interest to many will be the Baby Show introducing a number of very pretty Brainerd babies. Tomorrow is the big day at the Columbia for with Zudora a most novel comedy in three reels will be shown.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
Wednesday Eve.
Jan. 27th, 8 p. m.

There were two very fast games of indoor baseball played at the Y. M.
C. A. gym last evening, when the fast and invincible Norwegians met the slow but willing players of the Sweds bunch. It was interesting to see the Swedes try to bat the ball. Some of them would strike at the ball before it got half way down, and they went down to defeat, to the tune of 24 to 7, then the Y. M. C. A. team took on the best players of both teams and did themselves proud by beating them to a frazzle, the score being 17 to 6.
Time for each game was 55 minutes.
James Crust was timekeeper and scorer and Geo. Roswell umpire. Batteries Swede-Norwegian team, Swanson and Anderson; batteries Y. M. C. A., Clark and Stedfeld. Special overseer and authority on rules, Harold Forsberg. The Y. M. C. A. team is ready to meet any bunch of indoor baseball players in town, barbers, dentists, physicians, clerks, merchants or any one that would like to come over and try their luck at the game. All you need to bring with you is a pair of and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacob's Oil."

Rub this soothing, penetrating oil right on your painful back, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin.

Straighten up! Quit complaining!
Stop those torturous "stitches." In a moment you will forget that you ever

Question to be Voted on at Spring City General Election on Tuesday, April Sixth

PETITIONS ARE CIRCULATED

Will be First Time in History of Brainerd that Question Has Been Submitted to Voters

Petitions are being circulated in Brainerd to submit the question of licensing saloons at the next general election in the city, held on April 6.

Considerable progress is being made by those having the petitions in hand. One had a petition bearing 240 names. Others have refused to sign but are said to have expressed themselves as favorable to the idea of submitting the matter of license to the voters and in addition are reported to have subscribed to a fund for campaign purposes.

It is believed by many that this is the first time in the history of Brainerd that the matter has been submitted to the voters.

GREAT PLATFORM SPEAKER

Bishop Quayle in Same Class as President Vincent, Bishops Hughes or Dr. Rice

Those who know and would know more are taking great interest in the lecture of Bishop W. A. Quayle who opened the lecture course for the men of the First Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday, February 3rd. Superintendent W. C. Cobb endorses Bishop Quayle's lecture as follows:

"Bishop Quayle ranks as one of the foremost platform speakers not only of his own denomination, but of the country at large. In recent years he has been in great demand as a public lecturer before educational bodies, and within the last few years has been offered a date at Brainerd as a commencement speaker but his terms at that time were more than we could afford. It would be a splendid opportunity for the Brainerd public who enjoy a good strong lecture, and for those who were favorably impressed with President Vincent, Bishop Hughes or Dr. Rice, to come out and hear one who stands in the same class."

Masonic Party Tonight

The Masonic fraternity of Brainerd will enjoy a program of musical numbers, cards and dancing at the rooms of that society in the Iron Exchange building this evening. The entertainment is given by Aurora Lodge No. 109, under the direction of a special committee and something out of the ordinary is promised. Masons and their ladies and visiting members in the city are expected to attend.

Just Soak Your Clothes. Add Three teaspoons of "SKITCH." Boil 20 Minutes, Blue and You're Through

Need a washing so big or so dirty that it need tire you now? SKITCH will handle the biggest, dirtiest wash that ever was.

You just use three teaspoonsful of SKITCH to a boilerful of clothes. Don't rub, don't worry! SKITCH just sketches the dirt out better than you could rub it out on a washboard. Saves enough soap on every wash to pay for the whole package.

SKITCH can't hurt the finest fabric ever woven. It's so harmless it wouldn't hurt your stomach if you ate it. Get a 10-cent package of SKITCH of your grocer and throw washboards away. Almost all dealers have SKITCH—if yours doesn't, send me his name and I'll send you a sample of SKITCH free. Hans Pichtenberg, 211 Grand Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE EDITORS

Northern Minnesota Editorial Association Had a Profitable Meeting in Thief River Falls

BOUQUET FOR SECY. RUTLEDGE

Favor Publication of Personal Property Tax List, Ask Legislature to Enact Law

The sessions of the Northern Minnesota Editorial Association at Thief River Falls held January 22 and 23 were among the most profitable in the history of the organization. These resolutions, printed in full, were adopted:

"We, the members of the Northern Minnesota Editorial Association, in annual convention assembled, tender our sincere and hearty thanks to the members of the Commercial club and the citizens of Thief River Falls for their generous hospitality and many courtesies extended to the association. We especially congratulate the people of this thriving little city upon the spirit of unity and progressive-ness so manifest.

We fully appreciate the efforts of Brothers M. C. Cutter of the executive committee, and his brother publisher, Thos. Smith, in arranging for so successful a meeting as this has proven to be.

We wish to commend our Secretary-Treasurer, A. G. Rutledge, whose faithful work is largely responsible for the continued success of this association.

The development associations have done a great work in this section, and we wish to assure them of our hearty co-operation.

The publicity campaign of the State Immigration Bureau having resulted in greatly increasing immigration into the state, we recommend ample appropriation by the legislature, for its continuance.

We believe that the prosperity of the state demands the re-submission at the next election of the revolving fund amendment, known as amendment No. 3.

Good roads is the greatest need of northern Minnesota, and we believe that under the Dunn law a good system of roads can be secured within the next few years.

Agricultural instruction having proven of untold benefit, we favor its further extension.

The child in the country is entitled to the same educational advantages as the child in the city, and we therefore recommend that the rural schools be given increased aid by the state.

Believing that the publication of the personal property tax list will in a large measure tend to eliminate the tax dodger and equalize the tax burden, we recommend the enactment of suitable legislation providing therefor.

Respectfully submitted,

H. P. PHILLIPS, Chairman
GEO. E. ERICSON,
JOHN E. KIENTZ,
MARTIN WIDSTEN,
C. R. C. BAKER."

It will be noticed that Secretary-Treasurer A. G. Rutledge comes in for special thanks and he well deserves it, for he has been one of the moving spirits of the association.

In a letter Secretary Rutledge said: "The meeting at Thief River Falls was a very successful one, and the various papers which were read, and the discussions that followed each were very beneficial, more especially is this true of the papers by Morrison, Whiting (was not there and his paper was read by Vasaly) and Black. Perfect harmony prevailed, and the meeting was a 'business' getting-together in a large sense.

"We will go to Duluth next July for our annual outing, and I believe that I can assure you, right now, that the next outing will eclipse even the successful affair of last summer."

Senator Moses E. Clapp Indicates that there is no Likelihood of any Modification

An Akeley telegram under date of Jan. 24 says Special Officer Brandt has notified the agent of the Great Northern railway here that acceptance or delivery of liquors is strictly prohibited by the Indian treaty of 1855.

"No notice from the interior department is necessary," said Brandt, "either to railroad companies, dealers in liquors or individuals. The decision of the United States supreme court is sufficient." All druggists within the territory will have to apply to Chief Special Officer Larson, at Bemidji, for permission to use alcohol in prescription work. In a letter received here United States Senator Moses E. Clapp indicates there will be no appeal. The letter says:

"I don't know where the impression obtained that I was going to Minnesota to investigate conditions covered by the Indian treaty. I am thoroughly acquainted with those conditions and familiar with the effects of liquors in the vicinity of Indians. I think there is not the slightest likelihood of any modifications of the law."

Returned Missionary Will Lecture Under Auspices of Baraca Class of First Baptist Church

Rev. F. W. Weniger, the Baptist pastor at La Port, Minn., has been secured by the Baraca Class of the First Baptist church of this city, to lecture on the customs and condition of the inhabitants of Venezuela, South America, on Friday evening, January 29th.

Mr. Weniger is a returned missionary, and having spent a number of years in the interior of that wild, unsettled country, with practically no communication with the outside world, he will surely have an unlimited store of valuable information to impart, to the large audience which he expects to entertain.

Mr. Weniger is a master of the native language, and during the course of the lecture will entertain the public with native songs and an exhibition of relics and photographs.

As these lectures are highly entertaining and instructive as well as missionary, the public is urged to attend. Admission free.

GIRLS! THICKEN AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Bring back its gloss, lustre, charm and get rid of dandruff—Try the moist cloth

To be possessed of a head of heavy beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.—Advt.

J. M. Hannaford Says Outlook in Northwest is Excellent, Lumber Business Better

FARMERS HOLD SOME GRAIN

A Big Acreage Will be Planted for Next Fall's Crop—Northwest in Healthy Shape

J. M. Hannaford, president of the Northern Pacific railroad, is hopeful regarding the general outlook for business during the present year, says the Duluth Herald.

In the course of an interview in New York, he expressed the opinion that business in the northwest is in an especially healthy condition. "The lumber industry, which has been some dull for some time, shows signs of awakening," he said. "Several mills, which have been closed down for months, have reopened and already sizable shipments are being made to tidewater.

"About 70 per cent of the grain has left farmers' hands, but a considerable quantity is still in the country elevators, being held for higher prices. The farmer has received bigger prices than usual for his wheat, but has not yet begun to spend the money. Stocks generally in the country are low.

"While I do not look for any boom, I think that the spring months will bring improved business, and better earnings for the railroads in the Northwest."

Mr. Hannaford said that there would be a big acreage planted for next fall's crop. Fall plowing was done on a bigger scale than usual. Northern Pacific does not contemplate any large expenditures for improvements this spring. Routine upkeep work will depend, as usual, to a considerable degree upon the effects of the winter on the road. All work now is on a winter basis. There have been some signs of improvement in earnings in January, indicated by larger loadings.

"Panama canal competition," said Mr. Hannaford, "is showing its effects to a moderate degree, but it is too soon to gauge definitely its extent. I do not believe that shipments via the canal are much larger than those that went via the Tehantepec route before the canal was opened. The shipper, however, is getting lower rates and better time."

Mr. Hannaford added that until the interstate commerce commission handed down its decision in the intermountain rate adjustment, which will affect the whole fabric of rates in the west with respect to competition with the canal, the railroads would not know just where they stood, and that the question of the effects of the canal upon earnings could not be established until the permanent rates go into operation.

MORRISON PRIZE POTATOES

Otto Anderson of Route 3, Little Falls, Captures High Prize on Exhibit

It was through an oversight that Morrison county was not awarded one of the highest prizes and possibly the sweepstake prize for potatoes at the Crop Improvement association, held at Brainerd last month.

Otto Anderson, of Route 3, Little Falls, a short course student at the local high school, had on exhibition a peck of Rural New York potatoes. In some way his whole sample was not put on and for this reason was not awarded a prize, although several judges considered the potatoes better than those which captured the sweepstake prize.

After the corn show was over and all exhibits had been judged and prizes awarded the remainder of the sample was found, but it was then too late to give them a regular prize.

The exhibitor was notified of the mistake and told that his exhibit would be judged and awarded some sort of a prize. This was done and the potatoes were found to be slightly inferior to the sweepstake exhibit. Mr. Anderson was given a prize consisting of an honorary membership to the association for one year and $10 in cash. This prize is equal to the regular first prize in the section in which Anderson's potatoes were entered.

This proves that Morrison county can raise good potatoes. The sample entered by Anderson was one out of a total of over 150 samples of the very best potatoes grown in the various sections of the state.—Little Falls Herald.

MORRISON PRIZE POTATOES

Otto Anderson of Route 3, Little Falls, Captures High Prize on Exhibit

It was through an oversight that Morrison county was not awarded one of the highest prizes and possibly the sweepstake prize for potatoes at the Crop Improvement association, held at Brainerd last month.

Otto Anderson, of Route 3, Little Falls, a short course student at the local high school, had on exhibition a peck of Rural New York potatoes. In some way his whole sample was not put on and for this reason was not awarded a prize, although several judges considered the potatoes better than those which captured the sweepstake prize.

After the corn show was over and all exhibits had been judged and prizes awarded the remainder of the sample was found, but it was then too late to give them a regular prize.

The exhibitor was notified of the mistake and told that his exhibit would be judged and awarded some sort of a prize. This was done and the potatoes were found to be slightly inferior to the sweepstake exhibit. Mr. Anderson was given a prize consisting of an honorary membership to the association for one year and $10 in cash. This prize is equal to the regular first prize in the section in which Anderson's potatoes were entered.

This proves that Morrison county can raise good potatoes. The sample entered by Anderson was one out of a total of over 150 samples of the very best potatoes grown in the various sections of the state.—Little Falls Herald.

Resolutions of Condolence

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst Lillian Kern, beloved wife of our Brother Adolph Kern.

Resolved, that we the members of the Brotherhood of Carmen, extend our sincere sympathy to him in his bereavement and hope that courage and strength will be given him from above to sustain him in his sad loss, following as it does so shortly the death of his dear mother.

Be it further resolved, that his little one will be spared to be a comfort to him in the future.

IF CONSTIPATED OR BILIOUS "CASCARETS"

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They Work While You Sleep Get a 10-cent box.

Take a Cascaret tonight to cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, a bad cold, are bilious, nervous, upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach or have backache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.—Advt.

CHAPTER XI.

Sing Wah and His Wiles.
JOHN DORR stood stupidly staring at the papers which he had found in the locked drawer of the dresser. His brief inquiries at the desk had only served to make the matter darker, so he had come back to the room to puzzle things out.

Painfully he set the facts in order before him. The first was that Ruth had gone to New York to deal with Everett about money for improvements to the "Master Key." The second was that she had evidently not been able to find Everett and had started west again. The third was that she had been in this very room. There lay the papers that represented the mine and its value. But how—where—how could it be?

His businesslike senses returned, and he proceeded to wire Everett's office in New York, with the result that he was soon in possession of his address in San Francisco.

"So Everett's here, too," he muttered. "That is stranger yet. I guess it was time I dropped in. Now to find Ruth!"

He thrust the packet of papers in his pocket and then withdrew them and locked them again into the dresser drawer. He had a dim notion that Ruth might come back for them. Then he telephoned to the St. Francis hotel and left word for Everett, who was reported to be out.

Still following what his common sense told him was the logical method of unraveling the tangle he went down to the desk and entered into conversation with the clerk. Meanwhile his eye ran down the register. Opposite the number of the room he now occupied he saw a heavily scrawled "Mrs. J. Darnell and daughter."

He frowned, and the clerk said sympathetically, "You must have a nasty headache?"

"I have," John returned. "Met with an accident in an auto that rather upset me." He laid his finger on the register and, controlling his voice, went on as if casually, "I see Mrs. Darnell stops here."

To Dorr's secret amazement the clerk became mysterious, leaning across the desk to whisper, "Ah, you know her?" "I wanted specially to see her," John equivocated. "Is she here?"

"She is not, and she left in a very strange way," the clerk explained quietly. "She came here last evening with her daughter. I gave them the room you have now. Along in the late hours she suddenly came down with the girl unconscious and told me that

"Do you know Mrs. Darnell very well?"

she had been taken very ill and she was hurrying her to a hospital. There were a couple of men with her, and the house detective didn't like the looks of the whole affair, so he followed them."

"Was the girl very fair haired and—beautiful?" Dorr managed to ask in an indifferent tone.

"Precisely," responded the clerk, suddenly matching his guest's manner. "If you want to find Mrs. Darnell maybe the house detective got her address—or the address of the hospital they took the girl to."

Presently, in response to a summons, appeared the detective, who scanned John's somewhat bruised face thoughtfully, saying nothing until the clerk explained that Mr. Dorr wished, if possible, to get into communication with Mrs. Darnell.

"The best I can do is to find the taxi driver for you," he said slowly, still studying John's stalwart figure. "He may be out on the stand now. Let's see."

BOUGHTON PLAYS AT CLUB TREAT

Young Man Plays a Pleasing Program, Has None of the Mannerisms of the Usual Artist

THE RUSSIAN COMPOSITIONS

Boughton's Technique Brilliant, His Left-Hand Arpeggio Work Particularly Remarkable

The fallacy of the oft repeated remark: "People don't like a whole program of piano music," was proved yesterday by the large audience that greeted Willoughby Boughton at Elks hall, and by the warm expressions of appreciation that were heard after the recital.

The occasion was the annual club treat of the Brainerd Musical club, which was postponed from Saturday afternoon because the pianist was unable to reach Brainerd on account of a belated train.

Judging from his program, Mr. Boughton is not a neutral, but favors the Allies. His program contained numbers from five Russian and two French composers, with only Gluck and Liszt to represent Das Vaterland. It also contained some novelties that are seldom heard outside of the great musical centers.

His first Russian number the first movement from the G. Major Sonata, Tchaikowsky, was somewhat monotonous in theme but was interpreted in sympathy with its title, Allegro resolutio. The Andante movement was characterized by clever pedal work, and the Vivace by brilliant technique.

The second Russian number, Rameau, Godowsky, was one of the novelties and was extremely well done.

Considerable curiosity was aroused by the title of another novelty, Debussy's "Girl with the Golden Hair." The musical picture seemed to convey the idea of a delicate, dreamy and perhaps somewhat languid maiden.

Of course one could not help but connect her with the Lorelei legend in which the "girl with golden hair" eternally combs it with a golden comb, but it could not have been the sailor's enchantress that Debussy had in mind, as the literal translation of the title is "Flaxen Hair."

Perhaps the final number, a group of three studies, by Arensky, Liszt and Rubenstein brought forth the most enthusiastic applause which was responded to with La Campanella, Paganini, transcribed by Liszt, which was brilliantly done.

Mr. Boughton has none of the mannerisms that are connected in the popular mind with masculine artists. He wears his hair short, is natural and unaffected in manner, and does not strain after effects.

His technique is brilliant and definite, the left-hand arpeggio work and the interval runs being particularly remarkable. Throughout, his playing expressed the exuberance of youth, the fullness of joyous, buoyant, healthy life. When he has grown in years and has passed through some of the deeper experiences of life, there will no doubt be added a depth of feeling that will give greater tone color to his work, which is all that is needed to make his wonderful technique "breathe the soul of feeling."

AMERICAN FASHION NEWS

Small Fitted Waist is Returning—Worth is Sending Over Wide Skirts

That the small fitted waist is returning and will be a prominent feature of this year's styles, there can be little doubt. Worth is sending over wide skirts with slender fitted waists.

One of the best dressmakers in New York recently announced that she was going to reduce her waist to 22 inches. She didn't add just how she was going to draw it in 6 inches, but such a feat is something one can well contemplate. It is a physical impossibility to return to the wasp waist but it is not impossible to obtain a smaller waist than is now being worn.

The feature of spring costumes is the combination of materials. Chiffon is combined with taffeta and taffeta with serge, and very often all three appear in a three-piece costume.

Nine out of ten blouses are of a filmy fabric, chiffon, tulle, net, organdie, or a wash fabric.

A coat which will be popular this spring has been nick-named "the bob-tailed" coat. It comes just a little below the waist line, but to be chic it must have a very fancy drape. The Elton jacket modernized will be quite the thing.

This season will see women adopting only things which are good for their figure type. Therefore this small coat will not be acceptable or good for the short heavy or tall heavy figure.

Long sleeves are the vogue, designed generally on the bishop order. Dainty silk gowns for afternoon wear add to their beauty by the use of a ruffled sleeve.

The simplicity of practically everything worn this spring will be restful and decidedly different from the fancy, freak things worn the past three or four seasons.

Milady's corset will have much to do with her beauty. The beautiful figure of the well-gowned woman is not the result of chance corseting; it is the result of most careful study and selection. This season milady will use unusual discretion in selecting her corset, because it is essential that her lines shall be upright and the youthfulness of her figure accentuated.

With the lifting of the bust comes a new demand and necessity for the brassiere, and this season will see many new and attractive models in this dainty garment. For the woman inclined to plumpness, the brassiere insures a fashionable figure line that it is impossible to obtain by any other means.—From H. W. Gossard Co., courtesy H. F. Michael Co.

IF A STORM BLOWS UP, IT MEANS HARD WORK FOR THE MATE.

THE GOOD JUDGE GETS A BROAD HINT FROM A BIG MAN.

CHANGING tobacco every few weeks used to be the regular thing with tobacco chewers, but not so now with the men who use "Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew. Why, they like it so well they can't help talking about it to their friends.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

How Soldiers Live and Fight in the Trenches

London, Jan. 26th.—When it rains the trenches are half filled with water. The cold is always of the damp, penetrating, dreadful kind that chills to the very marrow. Hot food is served three times a day to the men in the trenches by other soldiers, who scurry like rabbits through long uncovered tunnels running back from the works concealing the guns.

These men in the trenches must have good food in order that they can have good blood, and if they have good blood, they have good courage, they keep warm because their circulation is good and their extremities are warm from exercise. Many men are invalided, however, because their blood and their stomach were not right to withstand the awful hardships of this winter campaign.

When you do not properly digest your food your blood becomes thin and every organ of the body soon feels the effect. The result is—headaches, sleeplessness, nervousness and many other symptoms—due to accumulation of poisons in the body. Unless the stomach is given aid at this stage—more serious illnesses follow. Now is the time to help your weakening stomach—now is the time to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (in tablet or liquid form). It has the same power to set you right as it has been proved to have in thousands of other cases. It will help your stomach so that the food you eat will nourish and sustain you and make good reviving blood. It will enable you to get rid of the waste a sluggish liver and irregular bowels have permitted to accumulate in your system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is composed of known native healing remedial roots and herbs with no alcohol nor narcotic drugs to give you harmful habits. It can now be obtained in tablet or liquid form from dealers, or send 50 stamps for box of tablets.

Address: Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

That the small fitted waist is returning and will be a prominent feature of this year's styles, there can be little doubt. Worth is sending over wide skirts with slender fitted waists.

One of the best dressmakers in New York recently announced that she was going to reduce her waist to 22 inches. She didn't add just how she was going to draw it in 6 inches, but such a feat is something one can well contemplate. It is a physical impossibility to return to the wasp waist but it is not impossible to obtain a smaller waist than is now being worn.

The feature of spring costumes is the combination of materials. Chiffon is combined with taffeta and taffeta with serge, and very often all three appear in a three-piece costume.

Nine out of ten blouses are of a filmy fabric, chiffon, tulle, net, organdie, or a wash fabric.

A coat which will be popular this spring has been nick-named "the bob-tailed" coat. It comes just a little below the waist line, but to be chic it must have a very fancy drape. The Elton jacket modernized will be quite the thing.

This season will see women adopting only things which are good for their figure type. Therefore this small coat will not be acceptable or good for the short heavy or tall heavy figure.

Long sleeves are the vogue, designed generally on the bishop order. Dainty silk gowns for afternoon wear add to their beauty by the use of a ruffled sleeve.

The simplicity of practically everything worn this spring will be restful and decidedly different from the fancy, freak things worn the past three or four seasons.

Milady's corset will have much to do with her beauty. The beautiful figure of the well-gowned woman is not the result of chance corseting; it is the result of most careful study and selection. This season milady will use unusual discretion in selecting her corset, because it is essential that her lines shall be upright and the youthfulness of her figure accentuated.

With the lifting of the bust comes a new demand and necessity for the brassiere, and this season will see many new and attractive models in this dainty garment. For the woman inclined to plumpness, the brassiere insures a fashionable figure line that it is impossible to obtain by any other means.—From H. W. Gossard Co., courtesy H. F. Michael Co.

Olson-Lundstrom

Gust Edwin Olson and Anna Victoria Lundstrom were married at the manse of the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. W. J. Lowrie read the lines of the ring ceremony. Both of the young people are from Akley where they are well known, though Mr. Olson has worked in Brainerd before, being employed in the blacksmith department of the shops.

They were accompanied from Akley by a sister and a brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Benson. These served as witnesses and bridesmaid and groomsmen. The young people will make their future home in Brainerd. Congratulations are offered them.

Birthday Surprise

IF A STORM BLOWS UP, IT MEANS HARD WORK FOR THE MATE.

I DON'T MIND HARD WORK WHEN I HAVE THE COMFORT OF THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW

THE GOOD JUDGE GETS A BROAD HINT FROM A BIG MAN.

CHANGING tobacco every few weeks used to be the regular thing with tobacco chewers, but not so now with the men who use "Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew. Why, they like it so well they can't help talking about it to their friends.

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—cut fine, short shred—seasoned and sweetened just enough, cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you find the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is the Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding ordinary candied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

How Soldiers Live and Fight in the Trenches

London, Jan. 26th.—When it rains the trenches are half filled with water. The cold is always of the damp, penetrating, dreadful kind that chills to the very marrow. Hot food is served three times a day to the men in the trenches by other soldiers, who scurry like rabbits through long uncovered tunnels running back from the works concealing the guns.

These men in the trenches must have good food in order that they can have good blood, and if they have good blood, they have good courage, they keep warm because their circulation is good and their extremities are warm from exercise. Many men are inviolated, however, because their blood and their stomach were not right to withstand the awful hardships of this winter campaign.

When you do not properly digest your food your blood becomes thin and every organ of the body soon feels the effect. The result is—headaches, sleeplessness, nervousness and many other symptoms—due to accumulation of poisons in the body. Unless the stomach is given aid at this stage—more serious illnesses follow. Now is the time to help your weakening stomach—now is the time to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (in tablet or liquid form). It has the same power to set you right as it has been proved to have in thousands of other cases. It will help your stomach so that the food you eat will nourish and sustain you and make good reviving blood. It will enable you to get rid of the waste a sluggish liver and irregular bowels have permitted to accumulate in your system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is composed of known native healing remedial roots and herbs with no alcohol nor narcotic drugs to give you harmful habits. It can now be obtained in tablet or liquid form from dealers, or send 50 stamps for box of tablets.

Address: Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv't.
